

Just Perfect for Me

There are times when:

She may think she's too fat,

She may think she looks old,

She may think she can't sing,

She may think she's too cold,

She may think she's too dull,

She may think she's too bold,

Yet whenever she does,

I have to,

With love disagree,

For she's the one that I love,

And she's just perfect for me.
